

WOMEN DOING WELL PATHWAY

“A community of like-minded women who are striving to follow the way of Jesus and live out wholehearted generosity in a multitude of ways.. it’s been a joy to journey with other women, go deeper and spur each other on to wholehearted generosity.”

- Michele, participant

DID YOU KNOW...

- Women control 51% of wealth in the US¹
- Women will control over $30 trillion in assets by 2030¹
- By 2030, 96% of women will be the primary financial decision maker in their family¹
- Only 6% of Christian women surveyed felt confident to handle their resources²

Now, more than ever, women want to be grounded in their purpose, passion and have a plan to live and give wholeheartedly.

The Women Doing Well Pathway is a place where you are free to grow and learn what wholehearted generosity looks like. This pathway has three phases of unique, interactive, research-based content that will help you:

- Gain confidence in who you are, what you’re passionate about, and what you have to give
- Develop courage to step into God’s invitation
- Find meaningful community to support you along the way

The Women Doing Well Pathway has three phases: Ignite, Grow and Activate. With each phase, participants gain in understanding and application of purpose, passion and planning for wholehearted generosity. Our content is biblically rooted, research-based, and steeped in community.

IGNITE

explore...

- Biblical foundations for understanding God's abundance
- Defining their own 2-word purpose statement
- What passion is and is not
- The importance of planning

Available as a one-day retreat or six-week course

GROW

gain confidence...

- Our identity in Christ
- The passion God has given us uniquely
- What we have: time, expertise and resources
- Being courageous to follow God's prompting

Available as a six-week course

ACTIVATE

put generosity into action...

- Living on purpose
- Sharing your generosity with others
- Defining your values
- Planning for kingdom impact

Available as a six-week course

How to get started

- Join an open Pathway group at <https://womendoingwell.org/explore/attend/#pathway>
- Gather a group of women and we will provide a facilitator
- Lead a group - once you have completed the first phase of the Pathway you are invited to become a trained WDW facilitator

“The WDW community is a place I can go to where I know I will be fed and have an opportunity to feed others, in a caring environment. I never worry when I share ‘is this going to be gossiped about’. It is authentic people allowing me space to be myself. And it’s something that I treasure.”
